GUEST-CUMMANE-STEWART BLOODLINE

Introduction

A1-1. The zero participants for this evidence-based ascending trace of the Guest-Cummane-Stewart bloodline are Harris Robert Guest (2018-) and Levi John Guest (2020-).

A1-2. Harris and Levi's matrilineal grandparents are Peter John Cummane (1954-) and Mary Fiona Cummane (1954-) nee Stewart, the parents of Fiona Louise Guest (1985-), nee Cummane, Harris and Levi's mother and wife of Robet John Guest (1982-).

A1-3. This trace is submitted in two parts, commencing first with Peter's patrilineal ancestry, including the matrilineal bloodlines flowing into the Cummane stem.

A1-4. Part 2 immediately follows stepping out Mary's lineal ancestry along her Stewart paternal line including matrilineal bloodlines flowing into the Stewart main stem, and secondly, taking the ascending lineal direction next from her mother, Hazel "Joan' Marsham.

A1-5. The Marsham bloodline trace also includes matrilineal bloodlines flowing into Joan Marsham patrilineal.

CUMMANE BLOODLINES

A1-6. The Cummane family of Melbourne united with the Guest family of Melbourne when Fiona Louise Cummane (1985-) married Robert John Guest (1982-) in 2013. It is the Cummane patrilineal family which is found by the evidence to originate from Moneymohill, near Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland.

A1-7. The earliest traceable Cummane patrilineal ancestor of Harris and Levi Guest is James Cummane, born circa 1800, of Moneymohill, near Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland. James Cummane (bc 1800-) is Harris and Levi's 4th great grandfather, Fiona's 3rd great grandfather. Peter is made by the evidence, James's 2nd great grandson. The trace along the Cummane branch however, extends one further generation along the Connor matrilineal bloodline flowing into the Cummane stem, and ends with Harris and Levi's 5th great grandfather, John Connors, born circa 1775.

A1-8. Commencing in an ascending direction from Harris and Levi, the zero participants for making all lineal and collateral relationship calculations, for the Guest-Cummane/Stewart and Stewart/Marsham lines, it is Harris who is the first-born son of Fiona and Robert.

A1-9. Harris Robert Guest, was born in 2018 at the Austin-Mercy Hospital, Heidelberg, Melbourne. He is the first-born son of Fiona Louise Cummane 1985-), nee Cummane and her husband, Robert John Guest (19982-), (refer Volumes I, II, II and IV for Harris's paternal bloodlines). Levi John Guest, was born also at the Austin-Mercy, two years later in 2020.

Harris and Levi's matrilineal grandparents

Peter John Cummane (1954-) and Mary Fiona Cummane (1954-), nee Stewart

A1-11 Fiona's father, Peter John Cummane was born in 1954, Victoria, Australia.

A1-12 Peter John Cummane (1954-) married Mary Fiona Stewart (1954-) in 1977 (Press, K, 2009).

A1-13 Fiona is the youngest of three children born to Peter and Mary. Eldest issue is Daniel Stewart Cummane born 5th September 1979. Next is son Douglas Peter Cummane, born in 1983. Fiona third born and last of three issue was born in 1985 (Family informant, Fiona and Kate Press, 2009).

A1-14 Peter is the second of three sons and a daughter born to Danial Francis Cummane (1913-1975), and Maureen McGrath (1923-2014).

A1-15. Peter's siblings are:

- Jim (James) Francis Cummane 1953- who married Nancy Hue Wendel (USA) (Married, 24th June, 1989, Ohio, USA, Ohio USA marriage abstracts, 1972-2007). James Francis Cummane was born in 1953 at Victoria, Australia. Jim married Elizabeth Francis in 1986.
- Diane Mary Cummane 1957- who married Paul Grech (Married 1984 and had issue, Nathan Grech, born in 1985). Diane Cummane was born in 1957 at Victoria, Australia. Diane Cummane married Paul Grech in 1984 (Press, K, 2009). They had a son Nathan born in 1985).
- Youngest of the four issue is Frank (Francis) Cummane 1960 -. Frank married Elizabeth Adams circa 1985 and they have twins, daughters, Lora and Tarryn.

Harris and Levi's maternal great grandparents

Danial Francis "Frank" Cummane 1913-1975 and Maureen McGrath 1923-2014

A1-16. Danial Francis "Frank" Cummane born in 1913 at Carlton, Victoria, Australia and died in 1975.

A1-17. Frank married secondly, Maureen McGrath (1923-2014), after his first wife Veronica shorty after child birth whereby Frank and Veronica's daughter also named Veronica (Frances) Cummane, also died.

A1-18. It is Jim, Peter, Dianne and Frank, the younger, who are all issue of Frank (Daniel) and Maureen Cummane, nee McGrath.

A1-19. Frank, senior and wife Maureen built a very good hotel business in Wallan Victoria known as the Wallan Hotel.

A1-20. Frank, is pictured below along with the Cummane family hotel he and Maureen built (Hotel photographs, Copper, R, 2020, Hotels, Old Places Australia):

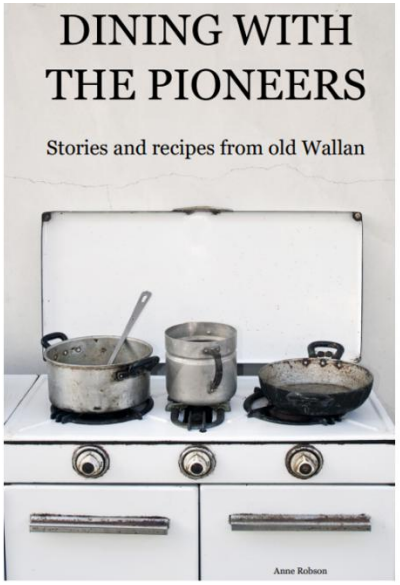
Sold to the Gibson Family then sold on to present owners the Hogan family

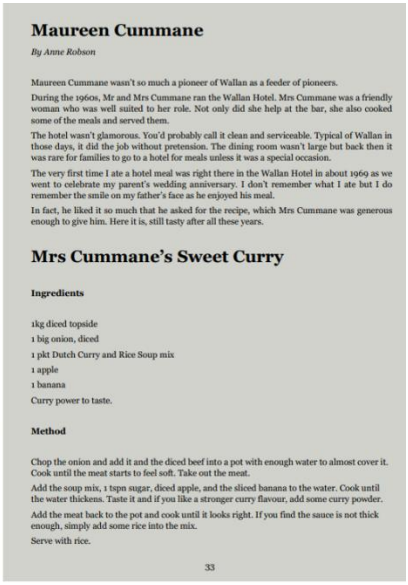
Wallen Hotel, circa 1940, formerly the Woodman's hotel

A1-21. Frank and Maureen were sponsors of local community sports clubs, Football and Cricket, and Bowls.

A1-22. They helped fund the establishment of the Wallan Bowling Club pictured below and taken of the new Wallen Bowling Club, circa 1963, that the Cummane' s helped fund:

A1-23. Maureen worked tirelessly in the hotel she co-owned and her home style foods were favourites of locals and travellers resting at the friendly hotel. Maureen still remains famous for her sweet curry served at the Wallen Hotel, and enjoyed by Ann Robson as a child (Robson, A, 2020, p33):





Maureen Cummane

By Anne Robson

Maureen Cummane wasn't so much a pioneer of Wallan as a feeder of pioneers.

During the 1960s, Mr and Mrs Cummane ran the Wallan Hotel. Mrs Cummane was a friendly woman who was well suited to her role. Not only did she help at the bar, she also cooked some of the meals and served them.

The hotel wasn't glamorous. You'd probably call it clean and serviceable. Typical of Wallan in those days, it did the job without pretension. The dining room wasn't large but back then it was rare for families to go to a hotel for meals unless it was a special occasion.

The very first time I ate a hotel meal was right there in the Wallan Hotel in about 1969 as we went to celebrate my parent's wedding anniversary. I don't remember what I ate but I do remember the smile on my father's face as he enjoyed his meal.

In fact, he liked it so much that he asked for the recipe, which Mrs Cummane was generous enough to give him. Here it is, still tasty after all these years.

Mrs Cummane's Sweet Curry

Ingredients

1kg diced topside
1 big onion, diced
1 pkt Dutch Curry and Rice Soup mix
1 apple
1 banana
Curry power to taste.

Method

Chop the onion and add it and the diced beef into a pot with enough water to almost cover it. Cook until the meat starts to feel soft. Take out the meat.

Add the soup mix, 1 tspn sugar, diced apple, and the sliced banana to the water. Cook until the water thickens. Taste it and if you like a stronger curry flavour, add some curry powder.

Add the meat back to the pot and cook until it looks right. If you find the sauce is not thick enough, simply add some rice into the mix.

Serve with rice.

A1-24. As previously submitted Frank's first marriage ended upon the death of his first wife Veronica (Margaret/Marguerita) Caligari 1909-1950.

A1-25. Veronica Cummane, nee Caligari, is the daughter of Antonio Caligari and Mary Fuller of Timor, Victoria (Australia Birth Index, 1788-1922; Name: Lilly Veronica Caligari; Birth Date: Abt 1909; Birth Place: Timor, Victoria; Registration Year: 1909; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Antonio Caligari; Mother: Maria Fuller: Registration Number; 30222).

A1-26. The place Timor, Victoria, is also known as Timor-Bowenvale, is a mainly rural area in the Central Goldfields Shire of Victoria, Australia. It is located 8 kilometres north of Maryborough.

A1-27. Veronica and Frank's only issue, Veronica Frances Cummane (1950-1950), is therefore, the elder half-sister of Jim, Peter, Diane and Frank.

A1-28. Mother Veronica and daughter of the same name, are buried together at Coburg Cemetery, Bell Street Coburg, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia (Refer: Victoria, Australia, Death Index, 1836-1988; Name: Veronica Marguerita Cummane; Death: Registration Year; 1950; Death Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Anthony Caligari; Mother Maiden Name: Fuller; Reference Number: 11632); (Victoria, Australia, Death Index, 1836-1988; Name: Veronica Frances Cummane; Death Registration Year: 1950; Death Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Daniel Francis Cummane; Mother Maiden Name: Calagari; Reference Number: 11633); (Memorial placed in The Age Newspaper by Veronica's sibling October 10, 1952 (The Age from Melbourne, Victoria, Australia Publication: The Age: Location: Melbourne, Victoria, Australia; Issue Date: Friday, October 10, 1952; Page: Page 8).

A1-29. Danial Francis "Frank" Cummane (1913-1975) is the son of James Cummane (1859-1944) and tirelessly in Bridget (Deliah) O'Keeffe (1870-1962).

A1-30. Danial Francis "Frank" Cummane died on 3 March 1975, at Heidelberg, Victoria, Australia and is laid to rest at Heidelberg Cemetery, Victoria, Australia.

Harris and Levi's maternal 2nd great grandparents

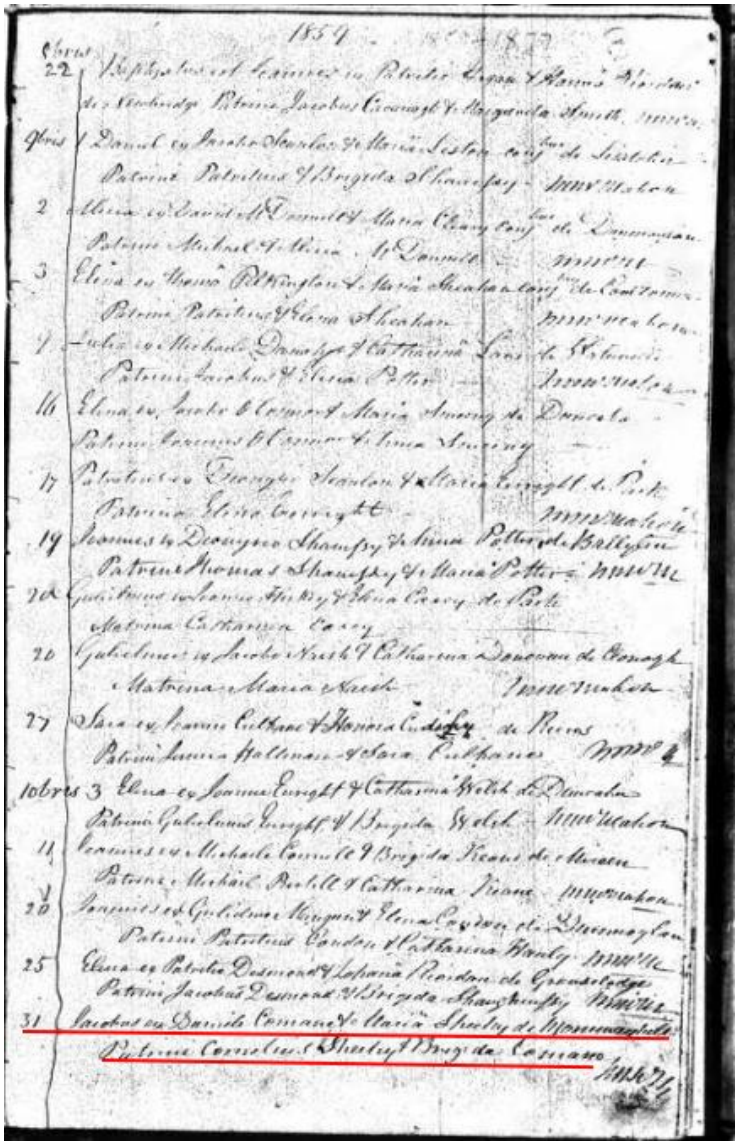
James Cummane 1859-1944 and Bridget Deliah O'Keefe 1870-1962

A1-31. James Cummane was born 31 December 1859 in Limerick, Ireland migrating to Melbourne Australia in 1893. James married Bridget in Melbourne in 1895.

A1-32. He migrated to Melbourne Australia five years after his younger sibling's "Ned" Edward Cummane (1863-1924) and sister Bridget Cummane (1864-), migrated to Melbourne first 1888.

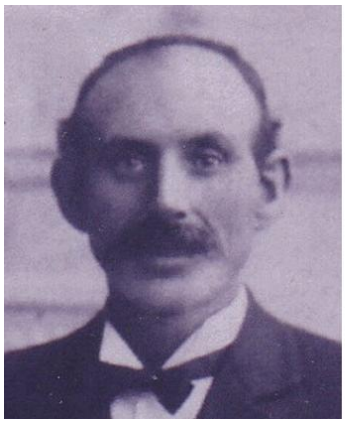
A1-33. Harris and Levi's 2nd maternal great grandfather James Cummane (spelled at the time, Comane) was christened on 31 December 1859 at Moneymohill, near Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland. His baptismal name was "Jacobus."

A1-34. The baptism record submitted below shows his joint baptism sponsors were his uncle, Cornelius Sheehy and his aunt Bridget Cummane (spelt Brigida, in the register, which is the frequent Irish preferred name for Bridget) (Ireland, Catholic Parish Registers, 1655-1915; Name: Jacobus Comane; Baptism Age: 0; Event Type: Baptism; Birth Date: 1859; Baptism Date: 31 Oct 1859; Baptism Place: Limerick, Kilcolman, Ireland; Diocese: Limerick; Father: Daniele Comane; Mother: Maria Sheehy):



A1-35. The same record above also shows his parents are Danial Cummane and Mary Sheehy.

A1-36. Below are two portraits of James, one middle age, and the second as an elder man (James Cummane died in 1944, at North Carlton, Victoria, Australia. James rests at Fawkner Cemetery, Melbourne):



A1-37. The ship which brought him to Melbourne in 1893 is not yet known (research continues).

A1-38. James Cummane and Bridget (Deliah) O'Keeffe, who is the daughter of Patrick O'Keeffe and Mary O'Reilly, had the following children (Sources: Church Records (Bapt): Kilcolman-Coolcappa; Family Records (comp. Nancy Command) Nancy Cummane, ex Vancouver, Canada; Family Records (comp. Marie Boyce) Marie Boyce 15 Fairy St, Warrnambool 3840 Vic. Australia; Civil Registration Victoria, Marriage Registration, #772, Press, K, 2009; and Civil Registration Victoria, Death Registration, #6197, Press, K, 2009):

- Mary Agnes (Mollie) Cummane, born 1899, died, April 1996.
- Delia Ellen (Nella) Cummane, born 1901, died 1988.
- Veronica (Vera) Cummane, born 1904, died 29 January 1982.
- James Bernard Cummane, born 1905, died 29 April 1984.
- William Patrick Cummane, born 1908, died 16 July 1986.
- Danial Francis "Frank" Cummane, born 1913, died 3rd March 1975 (Harris and Levi's great grandfather, Fiona's grandfather, and Peter's father).

Harris and Levi's 3rd maternal great grandparents - Daniel Cummane bc 1828- and Mary Sheehey 1838-

A1-39. Daniel Cummane was born circa 1828, at Moneymohill, near Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland.

A1-40. This Danial Cummane 1830- is the son of another James Cummane born circa 1800.

A1-41. In 1859, Daniel Cummane married Mary Sheehy, daughter of William Sheehy and Mary Connors, on 22 January 1859 at Moneymohill, nr Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland.

A1-42. The marriage was also witnessed by James Cummane but his relationship is not established, but fairly presumed to be Danial's father or brother. taking his father's name (Sources: Press, K, 2009, Church Records (Marriages): Kilcolman-Coolcappa; Family Records (comp. Nancy Cummane) Nancy Cummane, ex Vancouver, Canada; Family Records (comp. Marie Boyce) Marie Boyce 15 Fairy St, Warrnambool 3840 Vic. Australia; Civil Registration Western Australia). Daniel Cummane died, at Dunmoylan

Parish, Moneymohill, nr Ballyhahill, Co Limerick, Ireland. Children of Daniel Cummane and Mary Sheehy had 14 children. From these records and the detailed genealogical account given by Kate Press (2009).

It is known that they had at least 14 children:

- James Cummane, born 31st December 1859, died 1944, migrated to Melbourne 1893 (Harris & Levi's 2nd maternal great gand father).
- Mary Cummane, born 3rd April 1861, died circa 1862.
- Edward (Ned) Cummane, born 30th May 1863, died 1924 (Migrated to Melbourne 1888).
- Bridget Cummane, born 31st December 1864, migrated to Melbourne in 1888.
- Johanna Cummane, born 16the February, 1866.
- Catherine Mary Cummane, born 24th May 1867, died 1948.
- Patrick Cummane, born 17th March 1869, died 1941.
- Ellen Cummane, born 11th September 1870.
- Cornelius Cummane, born 1st March 1872.
- Anne Cummane, born 18th May 1873.
- Margaret Cummane, born 21st February 1875.
- William Cummane, born 15th October 1876.
- Honora Cummane, born 9th December 1877.
- Agnes Cummane, born 23rd March 1879.

A1-43. Refer page p172 which follows shortly for the Sheehy bloodline enjoyed by Peter John Cummane, daughter Fiona and her sons, Harris and Levi Guest.

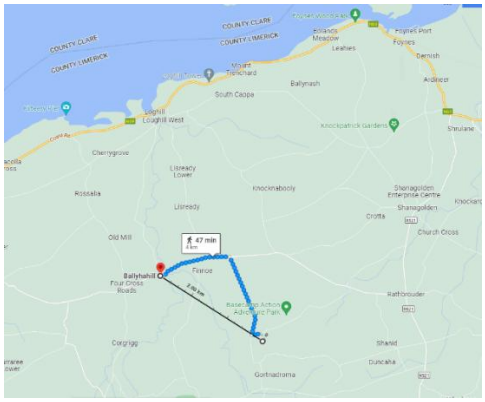
Harris and Levi's 4th maternal great grandfather - James Cummane bc 1800 –

A1-44. James Cummane was born circa 1800, in Moneymohill, near Ballyhahill, Kilcolman/Coolcappa, Co Limerick, Ireland.

A1-45. From the Irish records it is known he was tithed (taxed) 7 1/4 Irish plantation acres in 1833 at Dunmylan, Co Limerick, Ireland, meaning also he held lands their Tithe Books 1824-1832. Archives of Ireland, Dublin, Ireland (Tithes were for the upkeep of the Church of Ireland clergy, and were highly resented by Catholics).

A1-46. Research notes sourced from Kate Press, 2009, makes the males bearing the name Cummane, namely James, Michael and Maurice Cummane all listed in Griffith's Valuation at Monemohill.

A1-47. Given the small size of the village Moneymohill, Michael and Maurice are assumed to be related, possibly brothers (2016 census 146 people living at nearby Ballyhahill), whereby Ballyhahill is the larger of the two small villages:



A1-48. Maurice Cummane rented land at Moneymohill in the parish of Dunmoylan from (?) and John Enright. James rented land at Moneymohill in the parish of Dunmoylan from John Frawley and Michael Cummane rented land at Park in the parish of Dunmoylan from John Morgan.

A1-49. James Cummane born circa 1798 had the following issue (Source: Press, K, 2009):

- Michael Cummane, born circa 1819, died 1911.
- James Cummane, born circa 1821.
- Edward Cummane, born circa 1826, died 1911.
- Daniel Cummane, born circa 1828.
- Catherine Cummane, born 1830.
- Mary Cummane, born 1835.

A1-50. This concludes the Guest-Cummane family trace to James Cummane (bc 1798- of Moneymohill, County Limerick.

A1-51. The matrilineal bloodlines flowing into the Cummane main stem also inherited by Harris and Levi's through their mother Fiona and grandfather father Peter are now stepped out. They include the McGrath (Nil); O'Keefe; Sheehy and Connors bloodlines.

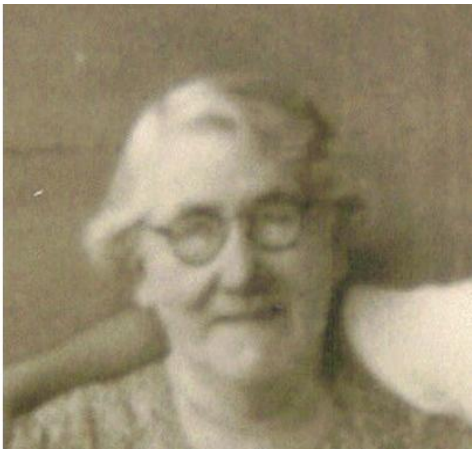
McGrath BLOODLINE (RECORDS RESTORATION COMMENCED) – Nil return

O'KEEFE BLOODLINE

Harris & Levi's 2nd maternal great grandmother Bridget Deliah O'Keefe 1870-1962

A1-52. Returning to Harris and Levi's 2nd great grandmother, Bridget Deliah O'Keefe 1870-1962, wife of James Cummane (1859-1944) who was the first of Peter's direct line to call Melbourne, Australia home.

A1-53. First, it is submitted two photographs of Bridget "Delia" Cummane, nee O'Keefe. The first is believed to be taken at the same time James had his middle age picture taken, the elder shot of Delia appears to also match the companion photograph taken for the elder James above being hugged by a loved one, perhaps son Daniel" Frank" Cummane?

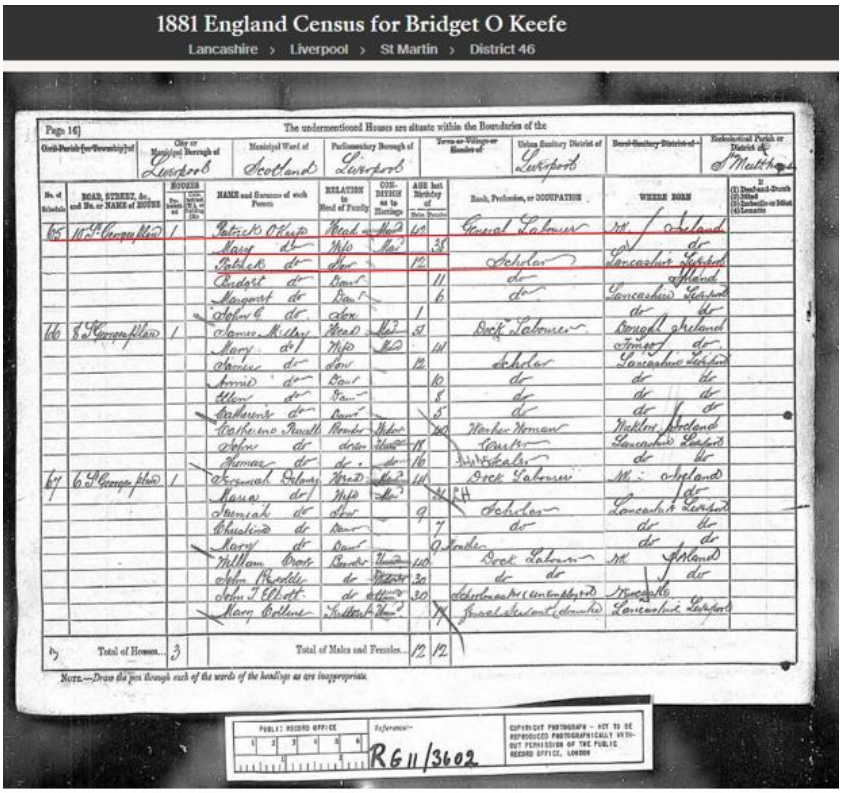


Harris and Levi's 3rd maternal great grandparents - Patrick O'Keeffe 1839- and Mary O'Reilly, 1843-

A1-54. It is known by record that Bridget O'Keefe (Keeffe) is the daughter of Patrick O'Keefe (a.k.a Padrick Keeffe) and Mary O'Reilly (Reily) (Ireland, Select Births and Baptisms, 1620-1911; Name: Patrick Keeffe; Gender: Male; Spouse: Mary Reily; Child: Bridget Keeffe; FHL Film Number: 101204):*

Name:	Bridget Keeffe
Gender:	Female
Birth Date:	21 Mar 1870
Birth Place:	Limerick, Ireland
Father:	Patrick Keeffe
Mother:	Mary Reily
FHL Film Number:	101204

A1-55. Taken from the 1881 England Census Bridget is known to be living with her parents and siblings in London, England, whereby it is further known they migrated there from Limerick (1881 England Census; Name: Bridget O Keefe; Age: 11; Estimated Birth Year: 1870; Relationship to Head Daughter; Father: Patrick O Keefe; Mother: Mary O Keefe; Gender: Female; Where born: Ireland; Civil Parish: Liverpool; County/Island, Lancashire, Country, England; Street Address; 10 St Georges Place Cotton St: Occupation: Scholar; Registration district: Liverpool; Sub registration district; St Martin; ED, institution, or vessel; 46; Piece: 3602; Folio: 41; Page number: 16; Household members Name: Patrick O Keefe; Age: 42; Name: Mary O Keefe; Age: 38; Name: Patrick O Keefe; Age: 12; Name: Bridget O Keefe; Age: 11; Name: Margaret O Keefe; Age: 6; Name: John G. O Keefe; Age, 1):



A1-56. Further research is required to take the trace beyond Patrick and Mary.

SHEEHY BLOODLINE

Harris and Levi's 3rd maternal great grandmother, Mary Sheehey 1838-

A1-57. Harris and Levi's 3rd maternal great grandmother, Mary Sheehey 1838-, previously submitted as whereby the wife of Daniel Cummane, born circa 1828 is the daughter of William Sheehey 1799-1874 and Mary Connors.

A1-58. Mary Cummane (1838-), nee Sheehy was christened on 13 July 1838 at Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland.

À1-59. The baptism sponsors were and Catherine Sheehan (Refer Press, K, 2009, record identification #3328 and Thomas Carly). The exact relationship of both sponsors is unknown.

A1-60. It is certain however, that Mary Cummane (1838-) nee Sheehy, the baptised, is the daughter of William Sheehy and Mary Connors.

A1-61. Research notes made by Kate Press, 2009 has Kate recognising that Irish cousins of hers, living in the year 2002 believed three sons emigrated to Australia and three daughters went to America.

A1-62. As previously established in this present study passenger records confirm three siblings did migrate to Australia, two sons, Edward (Ned) Cummane, born 30th May 1863, died 1924, migrated to Melbourne in 1888; followed by elder brother James in 1893. James and Ned's younger sister Bridget also migrated with Ned to Melbourne in 1888.

A1-63. Distinguishing clearly amongst these three issue that migrated to Melbourne Australia, it is from their first-born issue James, that Peter John Cummane (1954-) and his issue including Fiona Louise Guest (1985-), nee Cummane, mother of Harris and Levi Guest, all directly descend and owe their Cummane-Sheehy bloodline to James's parents, Danial Cummane (bc 1828-) and Mary Sheehy (1838-).

Harris and Levi's 4th great grandparents - William Sheehey 1799-1874 and Mary Connors 1806-1882

A1-64. Mary's father, William Sheehy was born in 1799 and died in 1874. William's birthplace is Duncaha, Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Co Limerick, Ireland.[1,2]

A1-65. In 1830 William married Mary Connors (1806-1882), daughter of John Connors, on 2 May 1830 at Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland. Mary Connors is Mary Cummane (1838-), nee Sheehy's mother.

A1-66. The exact relationship of the marriage witnesses to William and Mary's union who are John Cummane (#2825, refer Press, K, 2006) and Catherine Shaughnessy (#2826), (refer Press, K, 2006), is unknown.

A1-67. Once more given the very small villages of this area, whereby they were almost certainly married at either Moneymohill or nearby Ballyhahill, it is fairly presumed John Connor was Mary's father, brother or a patrilineal cousin or uncle.

A1-68 Press (2009) further makes possible that Catherine Shaughnessy was the same person sponsored the baptism of Mary Shine #612 and Patrick Sheehy #989 (Citations given: Family Records, compiled by Marie Boyce 15 Fairy St, Warrnambool 3840 Vic. Australia; and Church Records, Marriages, Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish).

A1-69. William Sheehy (1799-1874) died in 1874, at Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland. This William Sheehy (1799-1874) was a farmer and is Harris and Levi's 4th maternal great grandfather.

A1-70. Research notes by Kate Press, 2009, show custom and practice of the first-born male often being named after his father or grandfather.

A1-71. This suggests a further search should consider Patrick (the name of William's first son, who appears to die as an infant because another son was given the name Patrick) may give clue that William's father's name was also Patrick Sheehy circa 1775. Likewise, Ellen was the name of William Sheehy (1799-1874) mother.

A1-72. A subsequent resumption of the ascending trace along the Connor line may also consider that Mary Connor's parents may also carry the name John and Mary.

A1-73. According to Press's (2009) evidence-based study William Sheehy (1799-1874) and Mary Sheehy (1806-1882), nee Connors had the following issue:

- Patrick Sheehy, born 17th March 1831.
- John Sheehy, born 21st October, 1832, died before 1850.
- Ellen Sheehy, born 9th October 1833, died circa 1890.
- Cornelius Sheehy, born 14th March 1836, died 17th June 1911.
- Mary Sheehy, born 13th July 1838 (Harris and Levi's 3rd great grandmother).
- Catherine Sheehy, born 14th Dec 1840, died 28th August 1902.
- Bridget (Patsy) Sheehy, born 15th March 1843, died 7th February 1921.
- Johanna Sheehy, born 5th July 1845.
- Patrick Sheehy, born 14the march 1847, died 26th Mar 1903.
- John Sheehy, born 5th May 1850.

A1-74. Further research is required to advance the ascending trace beyond William and wife Mary.

CONNORS BLOODLINE

Harris and Levi's 4th great grandmother - Mary Connors 1806-1882

A1-76. Mary Connors 1806-1882 as previously submitted was born in 1806. Her place of birth Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland and is made by Kate Press, 2009, the daughter of John Connors (Source: Family Records, compiled by the late Kate Press 1943-2014. Noting further Kate Press and her husband, Tony Press, Fiona's distant relatives, resided at Claremont Avenue, Malvern, Vic 3144 Australia)., perhaps with Tony, widow living there this present day).

Harris and Levi's 5th great grandfather - John Connors bc 1775

A1-77. John Connors was born circa 1775 at Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland.[1] He married an unknown person circa 1795 at Coolcappagh and Kilcolman Parish, Duncaha, Co Limerick, Ireland (Press, K, 2009).

A1-78. Research notes by Kate Press, 2009 make clear that the given name, John, is not verified but fairly attributed to him by Kate Press (2006). John or Mr Connor is the certain father of Bridget Connors, born circa at the same place, 1800 and also born there was her sister, Mary Connors in the year 1806. The lineal ancestor of Peter John Cummane his issue including Fiona, Douglas and Danial and Fiona's sons Harris and Levi may claim John Connors bc 1775 as the lineal ancestor and father of Mary Connors (1806-1882).

A1-79. This concludes the Cummane patrilineal and matrilineal trace. The end trails reveal cluses to aid further research.

A1-80. Noting further that the Government of Ireland's recently restored genealogical record and ongoing restoration of many Churches of Ireland and Roman Catholic Parish records and civil records, otherwise thought long to be destroyed, but found since 2002, and damaged from a fire of 1921, are bow available.

A1-81. This Birth, Death, Marriage records including civil records can be downloaded free of charge via the official Government of Ireland genealogical database www.Irishgeneaolgy.i.e.

A1-82. The database is updated daily/weekly and BDM records can be downloaded and matched with presumptively, further advancement to the Cummane family trace should be expected.

PART TWO - STEWART BLOODLINES

Harris and Levi's maternal great grandparents - Neil Ashley Stewart (1923-1989) and Hazel "Joan" Marsham (1924-).

A1-83. Harris Robert Guest (2018-) and Levi John Guest (2020-) mother, Fiona Louise Guest (1985-), nee Cummane, is the daughter of Mary Fiona Cummane (1954-), nee Stewart.

A1-84. Mary is the maternal grandmother of Harris and Levi and it is her bloodline which is now traced and inherited by her daughter Fiona and her issue, Harris and Levi.

A1-85. Mary one of three children born to Neil Ashley Stewart (1923-1989) and Hazel Joan Marsham (1924-) (refer Marsham bloodline subsequently submitted).

A1-86. Mary's siblings are Anne and Alexander Stewart (Refer Sheet 26 - Guest-Steward Bloodline).

A1-87. Neil Ashley Stewart (1923-1989) and Hazel Joan Marsham (1924-) were married in 1950 in Melbourne (Victoria Marsha, Australia, Marriage Index, 1837-1950; Name: Neil Ashley Stewart; Marriage Registration Year: 1950; Marriage Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Hazel Joan Marsham; Reference Number: 18523):

Harris and Levi's 2nd great grandparents - James Alexander McDonald Stewart (1892-1979) and Clara Anne Stewart (1889-1958), nee Nokes

A1-92. Neil is the second born son of James Alexander McDonald Stewart (1892-1979) and Clara Anne Stewart (1889-1958), nee Nokes, Mary Fiona Cummane (1954-), nee Stewart's grandparents, and the great grandparents of Fiona Louise Guest (1985-), nee Cummane. First born was Neil's brother Brian MacDonald Stewart (1921-1976).

A1-93. Below is Neil and Brian's parents' marriage record (Fiona's maternal great grandparents (England & Wales, Marriage Index, 1916-2005; Name: Clara A Nokes; Registration Date: Jul 1918; Registration Quarter: Jul-Aug-Sep; Registration district: Bristol; Inferred County: Gloucestershire; Spouse: Stewart; Volume Number: 6a; Page number: 523):

A1-94. Brian McDonald Stewart (1921-1976) married Margaret "Jill" Brighton and they settled in Sydney leaving four issue: Ethan Stewart, Janet nee Stewart who married Celso; Lyndall nee Stewart, and Susan, nee Stewart.

A1-95. Brian died in Sydney in 1976, aged 55 years:

A1-96. Whilst Neil and brother Brian's parents, James and Clara, were married in Gloucestershire England in 1918, father, James Alexander McDonald Stewart (1892-1979) was born in Rushworth, Victoria (Australia Birth Index, 1788-1922; Name: Jas Alex McDonald Stewart; Birth Date: Abt 1892; Birth Place: Rushworth, Victoria; Registration Year: 1892; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Ewan; Stewart; Mother: Janet McDonald):

Harris and Levi's 3rd great grandparents – Ewan Stewart (1852-1930) and Janet "Jessie" Stewart, nee Macdonald

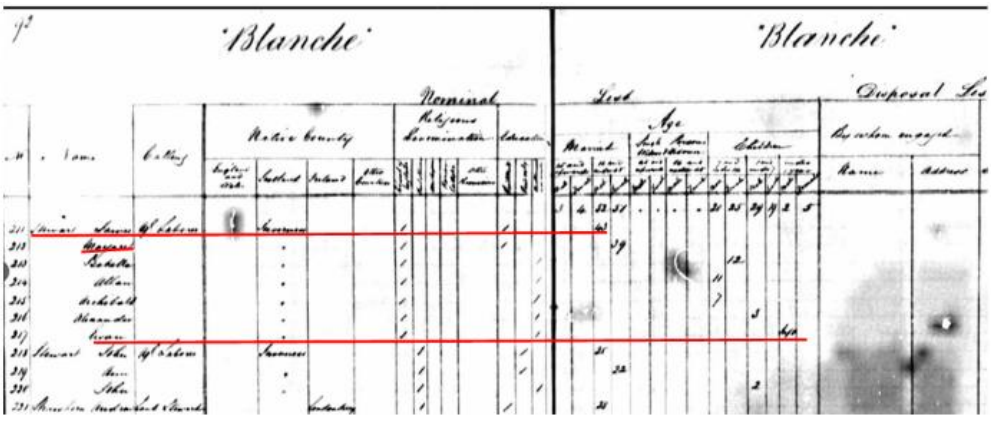
A1-102. James Alexander McDonald Stewart (1892-1979) is the son of Ewan Stewart (1852-1930) and Janet "Jessie" Stewart, nee MacDonald (Australia Birth Index, 1788-1922; Name: Jas Alex McDonald Stewart; Birth Date: Abt 1892; Birth Place: Rushworth, Victoria; Registration Year: 1892; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Ewan; Stewart; Mother: Janet McDonald)

A1-103. Ewan and Jessie married in Melbourne in 1891 (Australia Marriage Index, 1788-1949; Name: Ewen Stewart; Marriage Date: 1891; Marriage Place: Victoria; Registration Date: 1891; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Janet Macdonald; Registration Number: 5846):

Name:	Ewen Stewart
Marriage Date:	1891
Marriage Place:	Victoria
Registration Date:	1891
Registration Place:	Victoria, Australia
Spouse:	Janet Macdonald
Registration Number:	5846

A1-104 It is at this point in the trace however, that informs Ewan Stewart (1852-1930), who arrived in Geelong with his parents on board the ship Blanche.

A1-105 Ewan was aged less than one year (Age 0 - Infant) in 1852 when he arrived in Geelong with his parents and elder siblings (Victoria, Australia, Assisted and Unassisted Passenger Lists, 1839-1923; Name: Ewan Stewart; Nationality: Scottish; Arrival Age: 0 [Infant]; Birth Date; 1852; Departure Place: Liverpool; Arrival Date: 20 Nov 1852; Arrival Place: Geelong and Victoria, Australia; Ship: Blanche):



A1-106. It is probable the Stewart's migrated to Australia with other families of the same area, of Scotland, Balachelish, County Argyll. The natural migration as groups is known to be cluster migration which affords those migrating kinship solidarity and welfare as well as a sense of community upon arrival in their adopted homelands (Refer: Guest migration and kinship solidarity and welfare phenomena, Dr Elliott, 2006, p21, p42).

Harris and Levi's 4th great grandparents – James Stewart (1809-) and Margaret "Peggy" McKenzie (1813-)

A1-107. Ewan's parents are James Stewart born about 1809 and Margaret "Peggy" McKenzie (1813-) also of Balachelish, Argyll, Scotland. Margaret or Peggy, is the daughter of Allan McKenzie (1783-1858). He was also born in or around, Balachelish, in the Parish of Lismore, where the Stewarts, MacDonalds and the McKenzie families all originate before migrating to Melbourne and Geelong Australia. It is Allan subsequently traced who arrived first in Port Phillip before 1841. He was later joined later by his daughter migrating with her husband James Stewart on board the ship S.S. India Star of the Sea in Geelong in 1852.

A1-108. Margaret's grandfather, and Allan's father, John McKenzie is from the same place Balachelish, Argyll, Scotland (Duncan McKenzie letter, January, 1842, Duncan McLaurin Papers, David M. Rubenstein Rare Books and Manuscripts Library, re: Covington County, MS, Richmond County, N.C, Duke University) (Refer McKenzie trace which immediately follows).

A1-109. It is Ewan Stewart's (1852-1830), parents, James Stewart (aged 43 years) and Margaret (aged 39 years); nee McKenzie, who brought Ewan and his siblings to Australia in 1852. Also entered onto the passenger list are Ewan's older siblings, Isabella (aged 12 years; so, William, aged 11 years; Archibald, aged 7 Years, and Alexander, aged 3 years. Ewan is listed as an infant.

A1-110. Ewan was doubtless born on the ship and survived and his parents' roots are also from the same small village, Balachelish, Argyll, Scotland to whom the McKenzie's also owe their 18th century origins.

A1-111. It is learned from the 1851 Scotland Census taken just before they migrated, they were placed living in Balachelish, Argyll, Scotland and had three other issue.

A1-112. First born was son John Stewart aged 16 year in 1851, born 1835; Catharine eldest daughter aged 11 years, born 1840; and Allan, aged 6, born 1845 (1851 Scotland Census: Name: Margret Stewart, Age: 38; Estimated Birth Year: 1813; Relationship: Wife; Spouse: James Stewart; Gender: Female; Where born: Appin, Argyll; Parish Number: 525; Civil parish: Lismore and Appin; Town: Balachelish; County: Argyll; Address: 37; ED: 9; Page: 14; Household schedule number; 41; Line: 14; Roll: CSSCT1851_112; Household members Name: James Stewart, Age: 43; Name: Margret Stewart, Age: 38; Name: John Stewart, Age: 16, Name: Cathrin Stewart; Age: 11; Name: Isebell Stewart; Age: 9; Name: Allan Stewart; Age: 6; Name: Archa Stewart; Age: 4; Name: Alexr Stewart; Age; 2):

Household Members:

Name	Age
James Stewart	43
Margret Stewart	38
John Stewart	16
Cathrin Stewart	11
Isebell Stewart	9
Allan Stewart	6
Archa Stewart	4
Alexr Stewart	2

A1-113. It is confirmed from Ewan Stewart's (1852-1930) death certificate his mother Margaret's maiden name was McKenzie (Victoria, Australia, Death Index, 1836-1988; Name: Ewen Stewart; Death: Registration Year; 1930; Death Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: James Stewart; Mother Maiden Name: McKenzie; Reference Number: 5448).

MCKENZIE BLOODLINE

Harris and Levi's 5th great grandparents Allan McKenzie (1782-1857) and Catherine Stewart

A1-114. As previously indicated, Allan McKenzie (1782-1857) (Lawyer) (Victoria, Australia, Death Index, 1836-1988; Name: Allan MacKenzie; Death Registration Year: 1857; Death Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: John; Spouse: Mary MacKenzie; Reference Number: 6412):

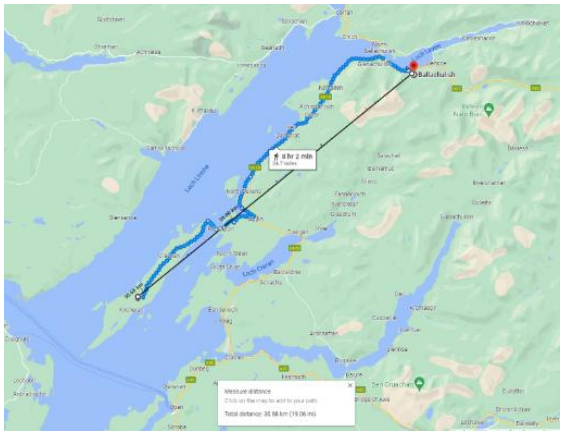
Name:	Allan MacKenzie
Death Registration Year:	1857
Death Registration Place:	Victoria, Australia
Father:	John
Spouse:	Mary MacKenzie
Reference Number:	6412

A1-115. He was born in Lismore, Argyll, Scotland on 5th September, 1786 to John McKenzie and Catherine Stewart (Name: Allan McKenzie; Gender: Male; Baptism Date: 5 Sep 1786; Baptism Place: Lismore, Argyll, Scotland; Residence Place: Lismore, Argyllshire, Scotland; Father: John McKenzie; Mother: Cathrine Stewart):

Name:	Allan Mckenzie
Gender:	Male
Baptism Date:	5 Sep 1786
Baptism Place:	, Lismore, Argyll, Scotland
Residence Place:	Lismore, Argyllshire, Scotland
Father:	John Mckenzie
Mother:	Cathrine Stewart

A1-116. It is fair to presumed he made the short move via punt along the Lock Linnhe, heading 30 Kilometres north east to a neighbouring village called Ballachulish in Argyllshire, Scotland here his children were many of his children were born (1851 Scotland Census).

A1-117. The modern Global Positioning System map (source: Google maps) shows how close and accessible to each other these two waterside villages were and remain so today via waterway:



A1-118. It is learned from the excerpt below that Harris and Levi's 5th great grandfather Allan McKenzie arrived in Port Phillip (Melbourne) before 1842.

A1-119. Most interestingly, Allan McKenzie is known to the history files of the Library of Duke University USA. The researcher sourced a facsimile of the original letter kept in the David M. Rubenstein Rare Books and Manuscripts Library, Duke University, USA (Duncan McKenzie letter, January, 1842, Duncan McLaurin Papers, David M. Rubenstein Rare Books and Manuscripts Library, re: Covington County, MS, Richmond County, N.C, Duke University):

"I must now tell you of a discovery that I have made of late, you are aware that a correspondence has been kept up between my Uncle Donald McKenzie of Slate, Ballacholish and myself for some years passed., and also that he he would try to emigrate this winter, of all this I kept you advised. I now Say to you that my letters to him fell into the hands of a cousin of mine who says he is the oldest Sone of my youngest Uncle Allan McKenzie, you are also aware that my Uncle Allan left his native country Some years Since and emigrated to Australia or, Australasia an Island adjacent to the continent of new holland, his Sone left him in Scotland the Sone being in his fifteenth year and went to Parris where he attended in the hospital for six years. he then traveled with a young french nobleman over France, Ittaly, and most of Spain where he entered the army as surgeon but soon lost his health where upon he retraced his steps and last summer reached the land of his birth, in traveling through Scotland visiting his scattered relatives he came on my letters in the hands of Cousin John McMillan and Uncle as before stated, he then lost no time in writing to me Stating that So Soon as he obtained a medical diploma from the faculty in Glasgow which he would have confered on him this winter he would Come to North America he Says he is disgusted by Seeing places given to his inferiors nearly because they were the Sons, nephews or cousins of so or so he also states that a brother of his is in Missouri - Selma p o I have written to both at his request, he States that Uncle and family are not able to emigrate they lack means, energy and enterprise, consequently as many of the half starved H-C folks, think if they leave the hold they have must inevitably perish…"

A1-120. The letter's content makes certain Allan McKenzie, known by his family in the USA settled on an island near New Holland called Australia or Australasia, well before 1842. It is further confirmed from the content that Harris and Levi's 5th great grandfather originated also from Ballacholish, Argyll, Scotland.

A1-121. The facsimile of the letter submitted above also shows the writer is the nephew of another, yet unnamed/unidentified brother of Donald McKenzie and Donald's younger brother is Allan McKenzie of Australia.

A1-122. From other evidence sourced by the present researcher Allan, certainly was well settled in the County of Bourke in the Colony of NSW before 1842. Perhaps he arrived as early as the mid 1830's or perhaps even earlier.

A1.123. The present researcher is the father-in-law of Fiona Louise Guest (1985-), nee Cummane, the 4th great granddaughter of Allan and wife Margaret; and able to place Allan in Heidelberg (Melbourne) perhaps as early as early as 1841, and certain to hold a farm in Heidelberg in 1847. Below is submitted a facsimile of the 1841 Colony of New South Wales (NSW) Census, which records Allan McKenzie (probably Heidelberg farmer and his family), certain of the County Bourke, Port Phillip (Melbourne, Victoria) (1841 NSW Census; Name: Allen McKenzie; County Bourke; District: Port Phillip; State: New South Wales; Country: Australia) (Refer also Census of Port Phillip District, ensuring the place name Allan lived was located in what regarded is commonly regarded today, 2022, as being inner Melbourne):

A1-125. Subsequently it is found the McKenzie's of Heidelberg then acquired larger pastoral lands in Melton (Bacchus Marsh area), where he and his wife Margaret subsequently settled and later died in 1857 (Allan) and Mary in 1860). Below is a copy of the deposition into Mary's death in 1860. The legal document makes clear, makes clear when and where Mary McKenzie last resided – the township of Melton. Melton the early pioneer town was located not far from the McKenzie farm fairly assumed to have passed to second born son George after Allan died in 1857 (Victoria, Australia, Coroner Inquest Deposition Files, 1840-1925; Name: Mary McKenzie; Gender: Female; Death Place: Australia; Inquest Date: 22 Jun 1860; Inquest Place: Djerriwarrh; Cause of Death: Disease of the lungs):

Harris and Levi's 5th great grandparents - John McKenzie and Catherine Stewart

A1-126. Allan, who died in 1857, reveals on his Victorian death record that his father is John McKenzie (Mackenzie) (Victoria, Australia, Death Index, 1836-1988; Name: Allan MacKenzie; Death Registration Year: 1857; Death Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: John; Spouse: Mary MacKenzie; Reference Number: 6412):

Name:	Allan MacKenzie
Death Registration Year:	1857
Death Registration Place:	Victoria, Australia
Father:	John
Spouse:	Mary MacKenzie
Reference Number:	6412

A1-127. It is further known from other records and the name of at least two of three sons born to John, Duncan, who is Allan McKenzie's elder brother and in 1842 was still living in Scotland, with the letter now held by Duke University informing that Duncan was set to migrate to the USA in 1842.

A1-128. The first name of the third brother caught up in the contents of letter still remains uncertain, but is most certainty o be second born of the three, Allan being the youngest.

A1-129. Re-submitted below is Allan's Scotland baptism record. The record names parents as John McKenzie and mother Catherine Stewart (Scotland, Select Births and Baptisms, 1564-1950; Name: Cathrine Stewart: Gender: Female; Spouse: John McKenzie; Child: Allan McKenzie):

Name:	Allan Mckenzie
Gender:	Male
Baptism Date:	5 Sep 1786
Baptism Place:	, Lismore, Argyll, Scotland
Residence Place:	Lismore, Argyllshire, Scotland
Father:	John Mckenzie
Mother:	Cathrine Stewart

A1-130. A partial match is made in the record submitted below making certain Allan's father is John McKenzie, of Ballacholish, Scotland, and married correctly a maiden in Kenmore Perth Scotland on the 25th May, 1776 (Scotland, Select Marriages, 1561-1910; Name: John McKenzie; Gender: Male: Marriage Date; 25 May 1776; Marriage Place: Kenmore, Perth, Scotland; Spouse: Christian McKenzie):

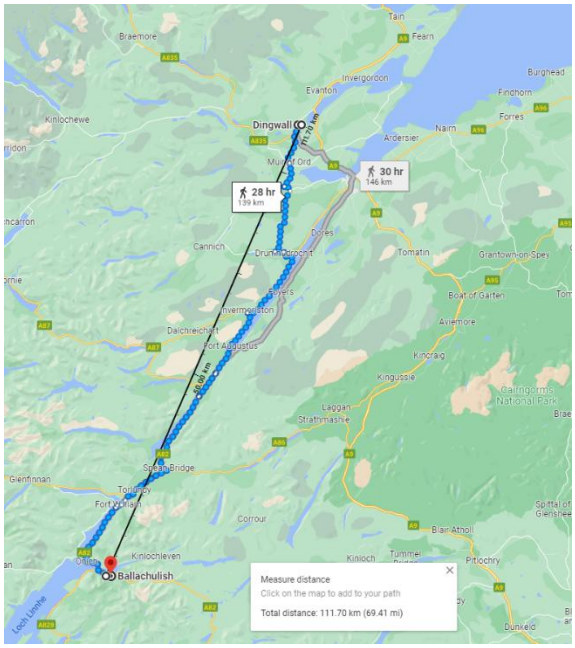
Name:	John McKenzie
Gender:	Male
Marriage Date:	25 May 1776
Marriage Place:	Kenmore, Perth, Scotland
Spouse:	Christian McKenzie

A1-131. Somewhat confusing is the name given to the spouse, "Christian McKenzie," through deduction, elimination and in lieu of no disconfirming evidence the name Christian, with married name McKenzie is a scanning error in digitalising hand written scripture from the origin parish record.

A1-132. Moreover, it is traditional for the groom to marry in the bride's home village making also certain that John's spouse is incorrectly digitalised as Christian is in fact Catherine Stewart of Kenmore, Perth Scotland.

A1-133. Below is a matching burial record for a John McKenzie (1758-1829) of Dingwall, further 140 kilometres north of Ballachulish, Argyll, Scotland, but easy to access via boat travelling up and down Loch Linnhe, with relative ease in order to carry out one's life, vitiations for business and to meet with family and friends and for employment. Dingwall appears to be the place John and Catherine preferred settle and raise their family (UK and Ireland, Find A Grave Index, 1300s-Current; Name: John Mackenzie; Birth Date: 1758; Death Date: 1829; Cemetery: Saint Clements Churchyard; Burial or Cremation Place: Dingwall, Highland, Scotland):

Name:	John Mackenzie
Birth Date:	1758
Death Date:	1829
Cemetery:	Saint Clements Churchyard
Burial or Cremation Place:	Dingwall , Highland, Scotland



A1-134 Further investigations reveals the Mackenzie's have a long and strong historical presents in the place Dingwall, Scotland (Jennette Humphreys, 'Dick , Anne, Lady Dick, d. 1741', rev. David Turner, Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, Oxford University Press, 2004 retrieved 20 Dec 2014; Gregory, James; MacKenzie, George, 1675, "Extracts of several letters sent to the Publisher from Edinburg, by the Learned Mr. James Gregory, to whom they were written by that intelligent knight Sir George Makenzy from Tarbut," Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London, 10, 114; "IV. An account of the mosses in Scotland, in a letter from the Right Honourable George Earl of Cromertie, & c. Fellow of the Royal Society, to Dr. Hans Sloane, R. S. Secr," Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London, 1710, 27, 330, pp 296–301).

A135. Whilst no connection is made to date to tie the united Stewart, McKenzie and MacDonald families enjoyed by the Cummane-Stewart family of Melbourne to the same united families evidenced by Project Gutenberg's History of The Mackenzie's, by Alexander Mackenzie (1907) a family connection cannot be ruled out.

A1-136. Stepping back for a moment, the small village of Ballacholish, Scotland. The village of Ballachulish in Argyllshire from Scottish Gaelic Baile a' Chaolais in Lochaber, Highland, Scotland is centred on former slate quarries (LL.D. Eneas MacKay, 1922, p43 Murray Place, Stirling) is a significant place of heritage for Harris, Levi, Fiona and Mary:

Ballachulish Ferry Hotels, photograph by James Valentine, ca. 1870

A1-137. So too is Kenmore, Perth, Scotland which is the place of origin fixed for Catherine Stewart. This ends the Stewart patrilineal trace and the matrilineal bloodline flowing into the Stewart stem.

A1-138. The trace reverts back to Harris and Levi's great grandmother, Hazel "Joan" Stewart (1924-), nee Marsham, Fiona's maternal grandmother and the mother of Mary.

MARSHAM BLOODLINE

Harris and Levi's maternal great grandmother Hazel "Joan" Stewart (1924-)

A1-139. As previously submitted, Mary Fiona Stewart's (1954-) mother is Hazel Joan Stewart (1924-), nee Marsham.

A1-140. Hazel who prefers the first name Joan, is the daughter of Arthur Henry Frank Marsham (1890-1989) and Clara Ruby Wilson (1890-1953).

Harris and Levi's 2nd great grandparents - Arthur Henry Frank Marsham (1890-1989) and Clara Ruby Wilson (1890-1953).

A1-141. Arthur Henry Frank Marsham (1890-1989) and Clara Ruby Wilson (1890-1953) married in 1919 (Name: Arth Henry Frank Marsham; Marriage Date: 1919; Marriage Place: Victoria; Registration Date: 1919; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Clara Ruby Wilson; Registration Number: 4291):

Harris and Levi's 3rd great grandparents - Alfred Ebenezer Wilson (1856-1950) and Charity Mitchell (1858-1944)

A1-142. This Clara is the daughter of Alfred Ebenezer Wilson (1856-1950) and Charity Mitchell (1858-1944) of Lilydale (Australia Birth Index, 1788-1922; Name: Clara Ruby Wilson; Birth Date: Abt 1890; Birth Place: Lilydale, Victoria; Registration Year: 1890; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Alf Ebenezer Wilson; Mother: Charity Mitchell; Registration Number: 5113) (Alfred is the son of Joseph Wilson and Caroline Collard (Married England 1835, arrived Port Phillip January 13th 1842, Vessel Name, Samuel Boddington, research continuing).

Harris and Levi's 3rd great grandparents - Edwin Alfred Marsham (1868-1957) and Mary Elizabeth (Eliza) Gunner

A1-143. Returning to Arthur Henry Frank Marsham (1890-1989) is the son of Edwin Alfred Marsham (1868-1957), the younger, and Mary Elizabeth (Eliza) Gunner (Victoria, Australia, Birth Index, 1837-1917; Name: Arthur Hy Frank Marsham; Birth Registration Date: 1890; Birth Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Edwin Alf Marsham; Mother Maiden Name: Gunner; Reference Number: 31331):

Harris and Levi's 4th great grandparents - Edwin Alfred Marsham (1842-1928) and Eliza Clynch (Clinch) Roberts (1843-1895)

A1-144. Edwin takes his name from his father Edwin Alfred Marsham (1842-1928) senior. It is Edwin the elder who immigrated from England with his wife Eliza Clinch Roberts (1843-1895). They arrived in Australia aboard the ship S.S. Star of India at Geelong in June 1871. They were accompanied also by Edwin senior's father (Widow) and other siblings of Edwin senior (i.e., children of Robert and his late wife Sarah).

A1-145. Edwin the younger was born aboard the ship S.S. Star of India on its voyage to Geelong:

A1-146. Edwin Alfred Marsham Snr (1842-1928) married Eliza Clynch Roberts (1843-1895) in London on the 8th May, 1864 (London, England, Church of England Marriages and Banns, 1754-1936; Name: Edward Marsham; Gender: Male; Record Type: Marriage; Marriage Date: 8 May 1864; Marriage Place: West Hackney, Hackney, England; Father: Robert Marsham; Spouse: Eliza Clinch Roberts; Register Type: Parish Register):

Harris and Levi's 5th great grandparents - Robert Marsham (1797-1875), and Sarah Elizabeth Smith (1798-)

A1-147. The marriage record above confirms Edwin's father is Robert Marsham (1797-1875) was then, a "Coach Painter."

A1-148. Reverend Robert William Little (1994), published "From Middlesex to Melbourne with the Marsham's" and it is from this genealogical work the researcher is able to confirm Edwin's father is Robert Marsham (1797-1875) and Sarah Elizabeth Smith.

A1-149. It is known by Little (1994) and confirmed by England and Australia passenger ship records and also Australia BDM records, all f Robert's immediate family migrated to Melbourne and Australia from the 1850s to 1871. Robert, a widower, migrated to Geelong also in 1871, and lived out the remaining few years of his life in Geelong surrounded by his surviving issue and their immediate family.

A1-150. Records show Robert Marsham (1797-1875) was born at Wisbech, Cambridge, England and died in Geelong in 1875, aged 77 years (Australia and New Zealand, Find A Grave Index, 1800s-Current; Name: Robert Marsham; Birth Date: 1797; Birth Place: Cambridgeshire, England; Death Date: 22 Apr 1875; Death Place: Victoria, Australia; Cemetery: Geelong Western Public Cemetery; Burial or Cremation Place: Geelong West, Greater Geelong City, Victoria, Australia):

No. 265.

A1-154. They had five children: Robert Joseph Marsham 1832-1894; Lydia Marsham 1833-; Charles Marsham 1837- ; Henry Marsham (1841-); Edwin Alfred Marsham Snr, 1842-1928; and Sophia Marsham 1844-.

A1-155. All four sons were plasterers and there can be no doubt the Marsham boys, their spouses and issue were close to Robert and all remained close after his death.

A1-156. In Robert Marsham (1797-1875), youth, he grew up on Gibraltar Row and upon becoming a young man was employed as a 'Coach-painter.'

A1-157. After his wife Sarah died, he became a licensee of a hotel in Islington, London. Court records prove this, whereby it is submitted below, Robert makes witness to a theft at his hotel, the magistrate. The record makes clear he is the keeper of the Earl Grey beer shop in St. George's Place, Holloway Rd, Islington (i.e., publican/licensee in modern vernacular):

190 JOHNSON, Mayor.

252. WILLIAM SCARBOROUGH was indicted for stealing, on the 1st of December, 1 pewter pot, value 10*d*., the goods of Robert Marsham; and 1 pewter pot, value 6*d*., the goods of John Green.

ROBERT MARSHAM. I keep the Earl Grey beer shop in St. George's-place, Holloway. I was gathering my pots on the 1st of December, and caught the prisoner taking this pot off the railings, and putting it under his flannel jacket—I stopped till he came up to me—I said, "Young man, you have got some pots of mine"—he said, "No, I have not"—I opened his jacket, and this pot was under it—I said, "What are you going to do with this?"—he said, "To have some water"—I gave him into custody.

JAMES ALLEN. I saw the prisoner going down George's-place, after he was stopped by Mr. Marsham—he took this pot from his hat, and threw it into a garden—I went and got it, and gave it to the officer—I am sure I saw him do it.

JOHN GREEN. I keep the Archway tavern at Holloway. This is my pot.

Prisoner's Defence. I was going about some work and was thirsty, and took this pot to get some water; I never had the other pot, Marsham must have seen me if I had.

ROBERT MARSHAM re-examined. I saw him take his hat off, but I did not see him chuck the pot out.

GUILTY. Aged 19.—Confined Three Months.

A1-158. Research confirms that in far-away Victoria, Australia, in the 1850s, they fledgling Colony was inviting trained craftsmen in the building trade to emigrate from England. In 'marvellous' Melbourne building was booming and the opportunities for well-paid and continuous employment guaranteed. History makes certain the Marsham boys made a solid first of all opportunities that came there way albeit, work, sport or community.

A1-159. Edwin senior grandson Harry Marsham also a plaster went onto own and operate most successful a pub of his own, in Geelong from circa 1917-1932. Harry died in 1932. It is this Harry's son, Alan Marsham who further owned and operated a successful hotel also in Geelong. Matter to which we will return.

A1-160. The first of the Marsham boys to take the venture was Robert Joseph Marsham (1832-1894), the eldest, aged 24 years. He migrated first with his wife Martha (Mansfield), aged 22 years and their young son William, aged 2 years. They left Joseph London aboard the S.S. Carleton as an assisted immigrant and arrived at Geelong on June 9th, 1857.

A1-161. It was not until 1870 that Henry, aged 29 years, decided to join his brother in Victoria and with his wife Susan (Morris), aged 25 years, and their children Rosing, 3 years and Henry, 2 years. The family embarked on the S.S. Western Empire as un-assisted immigrants, arriving in Melbourne on August 30th, 1870, a journey of 140 days.

A1-162. It is found by record that early in 1871, Robert senior, Charles and wife Maria (Harvey) and daughters Alice, Adelaide, and Florence, along with Edwin (senior) and Eliza (nee Clynch-Roberts) and infant Edwin (junior), boarded the S.S. Star of India bound for Melbourne.

A1-163. They arrived on June 14th, 1871 but with an extra passenger, as Eliza Marsham, nee Roberts, gave birth to Arthur on voyage. The researcher can only imagine the happy reunion with the other settled members of their family whereby all of the Marsham branches called Victoria home after 1871.

A1-164. After father Robert died in 1875, three of his sons, Charles, Edwin (senior) and Henry are found living and working together plasterers, in and around Collingwood. Collingwood at the time 1875-1900 in particular was still mostly rural with some emerging industrial development but a suburb initially founded on a belief to be an exemplar residential burgh. It was a popular spot for migrant free steelers from Britain and before it became heavy industrialised and urbanised form the late 1890s.

A1-165. This concludes the Guest-Cummane and Guest-Cummane-Stewart ascending trace. However, a brief but most interesting descending trace follows of the Marsham family of Geelong, close blood relatives of Mary, Fiona, Harris and Levi.

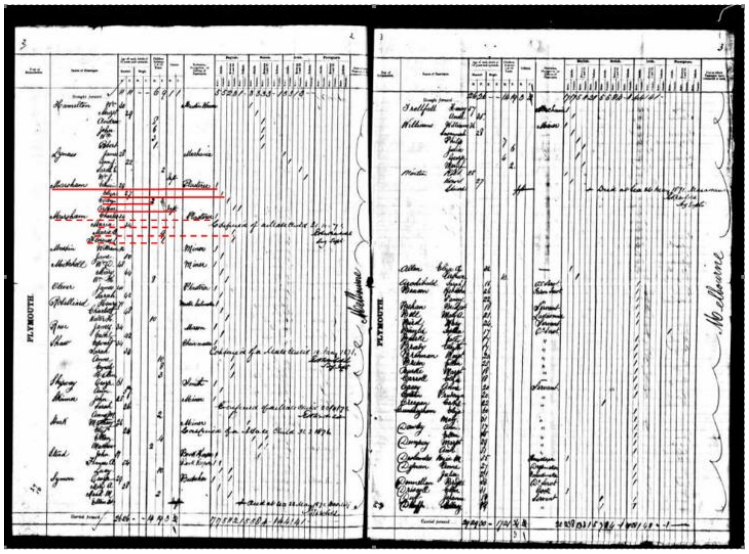
Marsham family of Geelong

A1-166. Starting descent from Arthur Edwin Marsham (1870-1958), the younger brother of Mary Fiona Cummane (1954-), nee Stewart, matrilineal Marsham's, 2nd great grandfather, Edwin Alfred Marsham (1842-1928), senior, whereby Arthur is the baby who was born on the ship S.S. Star of India, that brought the family to Melbourne, Australia in 1871 and Edwin senior was an infant, 2 years old on the same ship, the researcher identifies the original Geelong Marsham branch to be extant and connects through record Fiona to the 4th cousin Rebecca found along a matrilineal bloodline.

A1-167. Marsham descendants of Arthur, patrilineal and matrilineal, have left a most constructive mark on the history of Geelong, Victoria, and Australia more generally in various walks of life, sport and media.

Arthur Edwin Marsham (1870-1958) -Hazel "Joan" Stewart (1924-), nee Marsham's great grand uncle

A168. First the researcher, Fiona's father-in-law, submits a starting record which is testimony to Arthur Edwin Marsham (1870-1958) birth aboard the ship and arrival in Melbourne as a new born in 1871 (Victoria, Australia, Assisted and Unassisted Passenger Lists, 1839-1923; Name: Arthur Marsham; Nationality: English; Arrival Age: 0; Birth Date: 1871; Departure Place: Plymouth; Arrival Date: 14 Jun 1871; Arrival Place: Melbourne, Australia; Ship: Star of India:



A1-169. Mary's 2nd great grand uncle and Fiona's 3rd, Alfred Edwin Marshall (1870-1958), married Rebecca Kendell (1869-1936) in 1890 (Victoria, Australia, Marriage Index, 1837-1950; Name: Arth Edw Marsham; Gender: Male; Marriage Registration Year: 1890; Marriage Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Rebecca Kendall; Reference Number: 6512):

Name:	Arth Edw Marsham [Arthur Edw Marsham]
Gender:	Male
Marriage Registration Year:	1890
Marriage Registration Place:	Victoria, Australia
Spouse:	Rebecca Kendall
Reference Number:	6512

A1-170. They had two issue Robert Joseph Marsham (II) (1895-1974), and Harry Marsham (1890-1932).

Harry "Nipper" Marsham (1890-1932) (Fiona's 1st cousin 3 times removed)

A1-171. Harry "Nipper" Marsham (1890-1932) is Joan's 1st cousin, once removed and Harry married Gerte Grete Elizabeth Olive McQueen (1893–1950) in 1915 (Australia Marriage Index, 1788-1949; Name: Harry Marsham; Marriage Date: 1915; Marriage Place: Victoria; Registration Date: 1915; Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Gerte Elizth Olive McQueen; Registration Number: 5099):

Name:	Harry Marsham
Marriage Date:	1915
Marriage Place:	Victoria
Registration Date:	1915
Registration Place:	Victoria, Australia
Spouse:	Gerte Elizth Olive McQueen
Registration Number:	5099

A1-172. Occupationally, Harry also followed in the family footsteps of his uncles, also becoming first a Plasterer.

A1-173. He is found by the researcher working in 1916 with his uncles in Collingwood, whilst playing that year for Richmond Football Club in the Victorian Football League (VFL). It is this Harry who later became the owner and publican of the Comunn Na Feinne Hotel, situated on the corner of Bellarine and Kilgour streets South Geelong.

A1-174. Harry and Olive's 2nd born son would follow closely in his father's footsteps on a number of levels and also became publican of another important pub in Geelong which also still operates today.

A1-175. Harry was an exceptional sportsman. He was renowned as an all-round elite athlete, excelling in cricket and most significantly Australian Rules Football. He was an outstanding Australian rules footballer of his time.

A1-176. In 1912, Harry Marsham played for the Geelong cricket team, who played against the touring England MCC team. Geelong Football Club players included in the team along with Harry Marsham included Dick Grigg, Charlie Coles, Jack Baker, Alec Eason, Bill Eason, Billy Orchard, and Joe Slater (Source: Gartland, B, 2022, Almanac Footy History: Ossie not Charlie).

A1-179. The cricket ball used in the game Geelong v England MCC, survives and forms part of the Bob Gartland collection. It is Bob's wife who is the granddaughter of Jim D'Helin, himself a former Geelong player, who umpired the match. He also held onto the ball:

A1-178. Harry "Nipper" Marsham (1890—1932) went on to Captain the Geelong Football Club in its VFL resumption year 1917. The Victorian Football League (VFL) was then the elite competition in Australia and grew into the Australian Football League (AFL). Harry Marsham (1890-1932), represented Victoria in the national carnivals against the best footballer in Australia.

A1-179. Whilst Geelong Football Club suspended operations during the period of World War I and again during the WWII years, the Victorian Government wanted the VFL to continue to keep spirits high and Harry was contracted for the 1916 season to the Richmond Football Club, also a powerhouse of the VFL and now AFL. During 1916 he is placed with his wife and son Phillip Harry Marsham (1916-1987), living at 278 Wellington Street Collingwood, and working as a plasterer with his uncles. They lived across the road.

A1-180. He returned to Geelong the following year, when the Geelong Football Club resumed and he was selected to Captain the club. He retired at the end of the 1917 season and was economical sufficient to purchase the hotel license for the historically significant hotel – Harry Marsham's Comunn na Feinne Hotel

A1-181. His beloved Geelong Football club not only resumed their place in the VFL competition, they did so sufficiently well to be an undisputed powerhouse of the current Australian Football League competition.

A1-182. Below are popular playing cards of the time featuring Geelong champion, Harry "Nipper" Marsham. Arguably the best Ruckman/Follow in Australia at the time, or as the Sporting Globe preferred to refer to him as "Great League Ruckman" (Sporting Globe, January 4th `1933):

Strongly built and tireless, Geelong's Harry 'Nipper' Marsham was a key figure at the club for the better part of a decade. Recruited from Chilwell, he made the first of his 135 VFL appearances in 1909. Most of his football was played as a ruckman, but he was also a useful marking option up forward, as his career tally of 67 goals appears to confirm.
In 1916, when Geelong was in recess, Marsham played seven games and kicked four goals for Richmond. Returning to the Pivotonians as skipper in 1917 he found himself at the centre of controversy the following year when he was dropped from the side for trying to dictate policy to the selectors. Widely acknowledged as one of the most effective ruckmen of his generation, Marsham was a VFL interstate representative on three occasions.

A1-183. Harry and son Alan's popular nick name "nipper," and no doubt Harry's elder son Phillipe Harry Marsham 1916-), also held this nick name amongst friends), can be attributed to the "little nipper" mouse trap built by Marsham, UK (refer: At Home: A Short History of Private Life by Bill Bryson, 2013, page 291:):

His mousetrap, manufactured under the proprietary name Little Nipper, has sold in the tens of millions, ... Presumably Mr Marsham had it added because he needed an office in which to approach, 1918. write his sermons and receive ...

A1-184. In 1919, Harry and wife Olive are found living at 11 Marshall Street, Newton Geelong. This is where they raised their young family and Harry had retired from VFL. They had two sons Phillip Harry Marsham (1916-1987) and Alan Roberts Marsham (1920-1990). By 1919 Harry had left the plastering trade and acquired his own hotel in Geelong a short walk from his and Olive's family home:

A1-185. Harry continued to play football locally after he retired from the elite level. In 1920, and most historically, he is found pictured below opening officially Geelong new ground, Kardinia Park, with local government officials. Harry is recorded as Barwon Football Club playing East Geelong for the first time Kardinia Park was used (Geelong Heritage Centre, A Thematic History of Greater Geelong, Theme Nine, p1229, Figure 9.57):

A1-186. The local league match certainly attracted a good crown on that special day in the history of Geelong and its beloved Geelong Football club, and home at "Kardinia Park" (Geelong Heritage Centre, A Thematic History of Greater Geelong, Theme Nine, p1229, Figure 9.58):

A1-187. Most tragically, Harry died young, aged only 42 years, and died after 3 months of illness (presumed cancer). It is believed that Geelong Football Club, arguably the first VFL/AFL club to establish an official past players and officials club did so in 1993 in response to the shock of Harry's death on the 31st December, 1932. Below is the tribute paid to him in the business Herald, Melbourne, Victoria, 1861 – 1954, Saturday 31st December 1932, page 5):

DEATH OF FORMER FOOTBALLER

Mr Harry Marsham

GEELONG, Saturday. — Mr Harry ("Nipper") Marsham, the former Geelong and interstate footballer and all-round athlete, died early today at the Comunn Na Feinne Hotel, Bellarine Street, of which he had been licensee for many years.

Mr Marsham, who was 42, retired from League football 15 years ago. He played for Geelong from 1908 to 1917, and with Gray and Haines presented one of the most formidable ruck combinations in Australian football.

Marsham was coach of the Geelong Football Association at its inception.

Marsham, who was a man of exceptionally powerful physique and 6ft. 6in. tall, was for many years one of the best all round cricketers in the Geelong Turf Association. He also won distinction as a long distance swimmer and runner and as an outstanding performer in the displays staged by the West Geelong Fire Brigade, of which he was at one time a member.

Mr Marscham, who had been in ill health for more than three months, is survived by a widow and two sons. The elder son, Harry, who is 16, played centre forward with the Geelong College team and was leading goalkicker last season.

The funeral will take place at 3.30 p.m tomorrow.

A1-188. This is what the Melbourne Sporting Globe wrote after the heard the news he died (twice weekly paper), Sporting Globe (Melbourne, Vic. : 1922 - 1954), Wednesday 4th January 1933, page 11, "H. MARSHAM GONE:"

H. MARSHAM GONE

Great League Ruckman

"Nipper" Marsham has passed on. Great footballer and good-hearted giant. Harry died on Saturday at Geelong.

ONLY 42, Harry had been ailing for some time. A fine junior footballer, Marsham, who was big and raw, was selected to train with Geelong in 1908. The late Henry Young soon helped to mould Marsham into a powerful follower.

With Jack Gray as a shepherder—and the game has known no manlier and better shepherder-player—Marsham developed as a fine follower. Though a heavy man, he could take fine high marks, and was a beautiful drop and place kick. His hitting-out to Haines and Eason, his rovers, was masterly.

He was contemporary with Henry Young, Billy Orchard, Charlie Cameron, George Doull, George Fairbairn, the Rankins, Billy and Alex Eason, Jack Dalton, Percy Scown, Allen, Martini, Neil Freeman, Joe Slater, Dick Grigg, Kearney, McCarter and many other great Geelong players who will all feel sorrow at the passing of a great fellow.

NO BETTER FOLLOWER

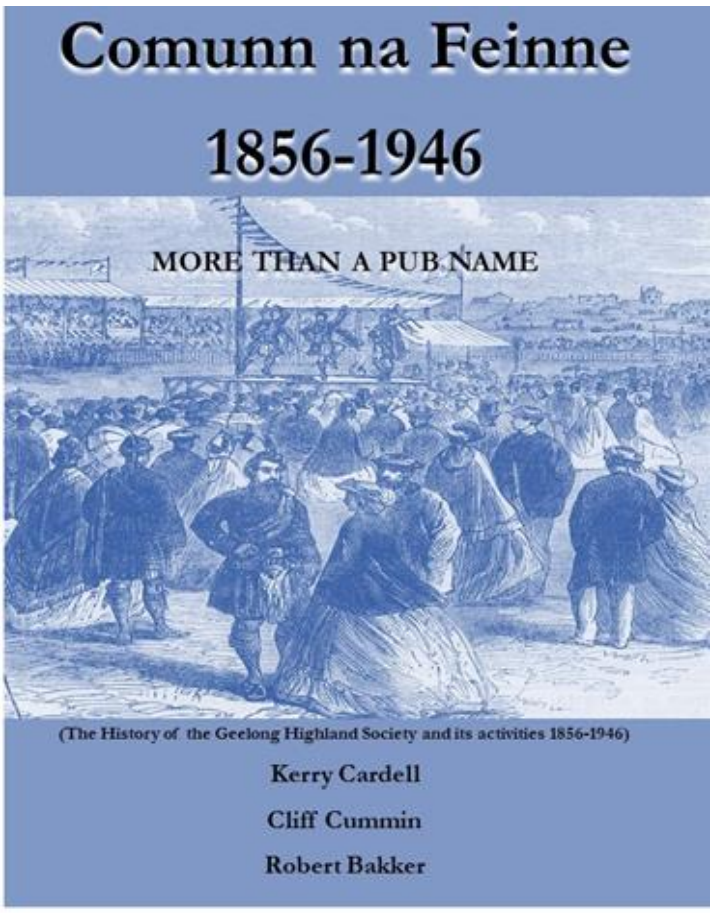
Just prior to the war it is doubtful if there was a better follower in Victoria than Harry Marsham. He won Carnival and interstate honors. He retired from League ranks in 1917, but thereafter played with the Barwon junior team for a couple of seasons and helped them along with his fine leadership and coaching.

"Nipper" was an all-round athlete who did well at any sport. He was a cricketer, swimmer, runner and fireman. He is survived by a widow and two sons. The elder son, Harry, plays football with Geelong College, and was a leading goalkicker in the Public Schools last season.

Headstone Description:
MARSHAM-On the 31st December 1932 at his residence, Comunn Na Feinne Hotel corner of Bellarine and Kilgour streets South Geelong Harry the dearly loved husband of Olive Marsham and devoted father of Harry and Alan, and loved eldest son of Arthur and Rebecca Marsham of Skene street Newtown Geelong aged 42 years.

Harry Marsham's Comunn na Feinne Hotel

A1-189. Harry's hotel has its place in the history of Geelong, and the settlement of Scots in Geelong, it was far more than a pub (Geelong Heritage Centre, 2014, p298, Comunn na Feinne source book and newspaper cuttings, 1843-1975, Geelong Advertiser and Intelligencer Geelong Record Series 1075, Geelong Heritage Centre, Geelong, 1843-1975); GRS 2075, Reference Library, p298; Comunn na Feinne Hotel: Conservation analysis report Rice, John, 1990, Deakin University School of Architecture, 1990, 1. Architecture; 2. Comunn Na Feinne Hotel):



209 Bellerine St Geelong VIC 3220

A1-190. Whereas Dr Michael John Murray (2006, p304), in hos PhD dissertation, titled, "Prayers and pastures: Moidart emigrants in Victoria, 1852-1920," Deakin University, recognises that:

> "The licensing of hotels to Highlanders also assisted in creating venues for socialising as a community. The naming of these establishments provides clear evidence of the creation of links between the original owner and the Highlands. 'The 'Argyll Arms Hotel' in Hamilton and the 'Commun Na Feinne Hotel' in Geelong all testify to this desire to maintain links."

A1-191. The present researcher learned further that the English translation of Comunn na Feinne "means 'The society or meeting of young men or the brotherhood of Fingalians' (Geelong Heritage Centre, 2014; Cumming, C, 1996, Comunn na Feinne source book and newspaper cuttings, 1843-1975).

A1-192. According to Dr Murray, 2006, p362), the pub was the meeting place for ex pat highland Scots and the place the Scots community, and official branch of the of the Victorian, the Melbourne Caledonian Society organised their cultural, sporting and other community building activities:

> "As seen in the case of the Commun na Feinne Society, notions of 'Scottishness' in Victoria were largely developed and promoted by the educated, literate Lowland Scots from middle to upper class backgrounds and occupations. These notions were constructed through a strong association with the emblems, symbols and customs of the Highlands thereby indicating the strong cultural association, affiliation and identification by all Scots to the tangible culture of the Highlands."

A1-193. The society continued to hold its meeting at Harry Marsham's Comunn na Feinne Hotel, they expected as their own throughout the period 1917-1932 and up until about 1940.

A1-194. This is what Museums Victoria say about the Caledonian Society and its members ship (refer also to Fiona's husband, Robert Guest's 3rd maternal great grandfather, William Hay who established the Carlton Caledonian Society an affiliate of the Caledonian Society of Melbourne as was the Comunn na Feinne, Geelong, Victoria, Volume II – Guest of Melbourne matrilineal bloodlines):

MUSEUMS VICTORIA COLLECTIONS

The formation of cultural associations has long been a crucial way in which immigrant communities have maintained and fostered cultural traditions in their new homeland. The first documented appearance of Scottish societies in Victoria occurred after the discovery of gold: the Comunn na Feinne in Geelong (1856), the Highland Society of Maryborough (1857), the Caledonian Society of Victoria (1858, reconstituted in 1884 as the Caledonian Society of Melbourne), and the Caledonian Societies of Ballarat (1858) and Bendigo (1859). These associations organised a variety of activities, including aid for ill or widowed Scots, social gatherings, sporting meets and concerts.

The Comunn na Feinne Society, also known as the Fingalian Society, was established in Geelong by Scottish Highlanders. Members would almost certainly have spoken Scottish Gaelic and membership may have been restricted to Highlanders and Gaelic speakers. The Society lasted from the 1850s to the 1940s and in its early years featured the traditional Highland game of 'shinty' (akin to the Irish game of 'hurling') at its New Year gatherings. Sport played an important role in this endeavour to preserve Scottish culture and Highland Games were held across Victoria, often with an open policy for entrants.

Museum Victoria holds a silver medal (NU 34518) that was awarded to the Secretary of the Scottish Comunn na Feinne Society of Geelong, Mr JS Mackay in 1877, in recognition of his services. The iconography of the medal is very interesting. The Society marks its Scottish-Australian identity by portraying a Scotsman alongside a traditional Aboriginal figure as supporters of its arms.

Phillip Harry Marsham 1916 – (Fiona's 2nd cousin x 2 removed)

A1-195. Phillip, Harry's eldest son left a much smaller document footprint than his father or younger brother Alan.

A1-196. nevertheless, it is certain from the scant documents able to be sourced, Phillip Harry Marsham (1916-1987) was a champion schoolboy footballer for Geelong College. He led the schoolboy competition's goal kicking on several occasions.

A1-197. As previously submitted, he was born probably at Carlton (Royal Women's Hospital), and from placement of his parents, he arrived as a new born at 278 Wellington Street Collingwood in 1916 (Victoria, Australia, Birth Index, 1837-1917; Name: Philip Harry Marsham; Birth Registration Date: 1916; Birth Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Father: Harry Marsham: Mother Maiden Name: McQueen; Reference Number:

A1-200. Phillip, or Harry as he preferred, revealed in his military service enrolment that he married Ethel Margaret McDonald in 1947. The researcher then sourced their marriage record submitted below confirming this information as accurate (Victoria, Australia, Marriage Index, 1837-1950 (Name: Phillip Harry Marsham; Gender: Male; Marriage Registration Year: 1947; Marriage Registration Place: Victoria, Australia; Spouse: Ethel Margt McDonald; Reference Number: 3885):

Alan Robert Marsham (1920-1990) (Fiona's 2nd cousin 2 times removed)

A1-204. Harry's second bron son, and Phillip (Harry junior) younger brother and only other sibling, Alan Robert Marsham (1920-1990) also went on to play 24 games for Geelong. Alan also had his football career interprupted due to World War II (WWII) and he crossed to Williamstown in the VFA when Geelong suspended their play in the VFL and Alan crossed to the VFA competition witout a clearnannce. When the Geelong resumed in the VFL in 1945, Alan returned only to end his career at Geelong after the 1946 season. It is reasonably presumed he contued to play or coach in a lesser competition:

A1-205. In the year 1941 when he crossed to Williamstown in the VFA many high profile VFL players also joining Williamstown that year. Noteworthy new players join the "seagulls" in 1841 along with Alan was reigning VFL Brownlow Medallist Des Fothergill from Collingwood and his fellow team mate Rood Todd (refer Williamstown Football Club web page below about the momentous 1941 season):

SEASON SUMMARY: 1941
By the end of 1940, the Allies position seriously deteriorated in the war against Germany and Italy. The casualty lists were mounting after the evacuation of Greece and many people in Victoria wanted football suspended. Besides the large numbers engaged in the manufacture of munitions, many more were in industries essential to the war effort and were not permitted to enlist in the Armed Services. As a result the Government was reluctant to stop all sport because of its value as a morale booster to an anxious community. Interest in football had slipped somewhat and crowds in 1940 were smaller than previous years and the VFL felt the effects of the drop in gate receipts more than the Association. Some clubs had found the wartime match fee of 30 shillings hard to meet, and with VFA clubs paying at least 2 pounds per match many League men crossed over as there was no permit agreement between the two competitions. Williamstown was one of the stronger clubs financially but had lost players, staff and officials to the Services and essential industries and many supporters were still upset about the exit from the finals series the year before.
Percy Masters, a newcomer to the district and one who had not much experience in running a football club, was elected president after Fred Harsley stepped down following two years in the role due to health and business reasons. Many thought it odd that Bill Dooley, who had rendered generous and valuable service as a vice-president since 1939, was not approached. Some thought Dooley 'grandstanded' himself over the Ron Todd affair but Larry Floyd was adamant that Todd would have returned to Collingwood without Dooley's intervention. Dr Roy Krantz stepped down as a vice-president after 6 years of service due to him leaving the district, while another vice-president, Horrie Hocking, was in Palestine with the Army. Former committeemen, Alex Bond and George Rogers, were away with the Navy. Treasurer, Charles Ferguson, also stepped aside after just one season due to business demands, and was replaced by Albert Wilkins.
Ron Todd's best friend and Northcote Cricket Club teammate, 20yo Des Fothergill, joined Williamstown without a clearance in 1941 after being joint winner of the Brownlow Medal with South's Herbie Matthews the previous season and winning Collingwood's best and fairest 3 times. This was the third year running that the Club recruited a high profile VFL player following 'Soapy' Vallence in 1939 and Ron Todd in 1940. Another Northcote cricket product, Ivan Miller, who played 4 first-class matches for Victoria between 1933-36 and VFA football for Northcote in 1936-37, also came across from Avenel. Gordon Ogden was re-appointed as captain-coach but missed half the season due to illness, injuries, and business commitments while Fothergill was made vice-captain but led the team in Ogden's absence. Ogden was also suspended for two matches following the round 15 game against Camberwell at Williamstown, which resulted in a 2-point defeat, for disputing umpire Groves' decisions.
Other newcomers were 19yo Lou Salvas (Auburn), Bob Spargo (after 65 games with Footscray), 16yo Andy Taylor from the local high school, 1939 premiership centre half-forward Bert McTaggart jnr (back from Carlton), George Pattinson (after 64 games with Essendon), Bill Green (Essendon), Reg 'Dodger' Ryan (Carlton Seconds), Ben Le Seuer (Collingwood), Tom New (Carnegie), Alan 'Nipper' Marsham, who came from Geelong without a clearance, Jack Scott from Richmond, Ian McTaggart (West Melbourne), Bill Crane (Abbotsford), Frank George (Footscray Seconds), Gordon Beckman (North Melbourne Seconds) and Ossie Bownds (Albury). Bownds had one arm only half its normal length but could still take chest marks and occasional one-handed grabs and could run bouncing the ball one-handed. The throw-pass was his downfall because he was not able to dispose of the ball with a two-handed pass when tackled. Local players, Alan Saker (Williamstown District), Jack Sexton (Williamstown CYMS), Jack McMillan (Spotswood Under 18's) and Roger Hagan (Spotswood), were others to debut during the year. Charlie Bennett, who had last played for Williamstown in 1937, returned after a stint with Oakleigh. Kevin Rohleder also joined the Club from Altona and would go on to play 5 games with St Kilda in 1943 during the war recess.

A1-212. A simple google search makes certain the family residence was Alan's hotel that he owned and operated. The hotel now named the Cremorne Hotel has recently changed hands and is held by ex-Geelong footballer, Billy Brownless:

A1-213 Marie is also identified as dying in 1990 as a widow and bearing the surname Price. It is fair to assume they separated before 1967 and both later divorced and remarried. Alan, Fiona Guest, nee Cummane's second cousin, twice removed is buried in the family plot with his parents and has on his headstone loved husband of "Teiko," to which it is clear he did remarry (Australia and New Zealand, Find A Grave Index, 1800s-Current; Name: Alan Robert Marsham; Gender: Male; Birth Date: 6 Jul 1920; Death Date: 7 Apr 1990; Cemetery: Geelong Eastern Cemetery; Burial or Cremation Place: Geelong, Greater Geelong City, Victoria, Australia: Father: Harry Marsham; Mother: Olive Gertrude Elizabeth Rapkins, Plot location: EAS-LAWN-J-808-110).
